MEMPHIS APPEAL.

We do not publish the following letter to become its endorser, for we are quite sure that there has not been and is not now any intention on the part of the Conservative men of Memphis to slight or act independently of their friends in the country. We publish it, because, whenever there is discontent or misunderstanding among those engaged in the same cause, it is wise to make it known at once, that the cause, if there be any, may be removed; and if none, that by explanations harmony may be restored. We join in no censure, expressed or implied; but it is best that the impression of which the letter is evidence, should be known, that mischief may be prevented:

NEAR WHITE'S STATION, M. & C. R. R., July 7, 1868.

GEN. ALBERT PIKE:

Dear Sir: I noticed in your paper of to-day an article taken from the Avalanche signed "Voter," and a reply by yourself as President of the Shelby County Democratic Club. For the purpose of keeping down division in the Conservative element of the county, I thought best to drop you individually a few hints in time, that you may reconcile all, city and county. Before the war there was unity of action with the people of the city and county. In our meetings we all met and consulted, and therefore the parties were represented in county and city. Since the war it has been very different, as you are apprised. If you will reflect, the city has represented the whole county in everything. We in the country are never consulted, but expected to unite with the city, and give it every office. This is not as it was before the war. The city did not then call meetings for the whole county and set the time at 7 or 8 o'clock at night, thereby preventing the country people from participating in them. I think when you examine into the matter it has all originated here.

I merely write for you and the good of us all. We are all Whigs in this District, and sensitive; but no office-seekers among us. Yours truly and in haste,

GENERAL BUT NOT GENEROUS AMNESTY.

The President, with the singular faculty that he possesses of doing things by halves, has proclaimed what he calls a General Amnesty. The essential part of it is in these words:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do, by virtue of the Constitution, and in the name of the people of the United States, hereby proclaim and declare, unconditionally and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly and indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, excepting such person or persons as may be under presentment or indictment in any Court of the United States having competent jurisdiction, upon a charge of treason or other felony, a full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all right of property except slaves, and except also as to any property of which any person may have been legally divested under the laws of the United States.

From beginning to end, the President's course in exercising the pardoning power has been timid, feeble and unjust. There was no reason or sense at the beginning, in excepting persons whose taxable property was worth more than twenty thousand dollars. Nothing made a Major-General less worthy of pardon than a Brigadier or a Colonel. Those who were specially pardoned (among the first of whom was a member of the Confederate Congress from Kentucky) had no greater claims to pardon and grace, than others not fortunate enough to have their pardons solicited by Radicals.

The President grants pardons grudgingly, and has heretofore in most cases used the power to make favor with Radicals by hastening to respond to their recommendations. Now he excepts all persons under presentment or indictment in any Court of the United States, upon a charge of treason or other felony. How does that make it less politic to pardon them? Is General Lee less worthy to be pardoned, or General Johnston or Beauregard, than others who were pardoned long ago? In some States indictments were found, in others not. Many are pending in Virginia, and there in other States there are none at all. were two hundred or more. We are under indictment yet: So is General Hindman. So is General Lee, Mr. Hunter, and so are some hundreds besides, not long ago, in Arkansas. Why should Howell Cobb, for example, have the benefit of the amnesty now proclaimed, because he has been so fortunate as not to be indicted, and Mr. Hunter be excluded because Underwood had him indicted in his Court? Why, indeed, should indictment make it any the less politic and wise to pardon the party? It certainly does not take from him the power.

Moreover, one cannot help asking why the President did not take this step when there was very great doubt, to say the least, whether he would not be convicted and deposed. Why did he run the risk of leaving the best men of the South to the tender mercies of blasphemous Ben. Wade? If he supposes that he can conciliate or mollify Radicalism by leaving it victims for the sacrifice, he is wofully mistaken. Every such concession is regarded by it as a confession of weakness and fear; and such it is.

MISSISSIPPI.

—Only one man with a white face voted the Radical ticket in DeSoto county, and he has since picked up his carpet-bag and put out for Arkansas.

—The Hernando Press of the 9th says: Complaints from all quarters of our country are, that the bloody and dry murrain is killing up the cattle to a great extent. We have heard of several remedies being used to some succes. For the bloody murrain use a solution of copperas, and for dry murrain use a piece of bacon wrapped in a cabbage leaf. Both remedies are simple and within the reach of everybody.

—The editors of the Press have eaten bread made from new wheat at the mills of Robertson, Mitchell & Co., near Hernando. They pronounce the bread equal to any made from the best Harrison brand of flour.

—The Canton Mail publishes a list of one hundred names of black men who voted the Democratic ticket in that place at the recent election.

—The Jackson Clarion of the 6th contains the following obituary: "Died—At Jackson, Miss., on the morning of July 4, 1868, of too much Constitution, the State Journal, aged about six months."

—The tobacco crop of Virginia is unusually backward, and is suffering greatly from the fly.

TENNESSEE.

—A row occurred in Gallatin on the 8th, which came near proving serious. At the meeting on Monday, in regard to subscribing stock to the Gallatin and Lebanon Railroad, but at which politics were freely discussed, Col. Head made a telling speech against Radicals in general, and against a certain scalawag named Needles in particular, no doubt saying many truthful things in regard to the scalawag's real character. At this Needles took offense, and in reply accused Col. Head of acting badly while in command of a Confederate regiment at Fort Donelson. The Colonel shot at Needles, and the negroes rallied to the suppert of the latter, but the excitement was allayed.

—Jas. L. Francis, Registration Commissioner of Overton county, it is reported, was shot a few days ago by parties unknown.

—The Banner of the 9th says: At Culleoka, ten miles south of Columbia, on the Nashville and Decatur Railroad, a shocking tragedy was enacted yesterday morning, the result of a foolish quarrel between two neighbors, Robert Young and James Nash. Some pigs belonging to the latter, had, it seems, been encroaching upon the premises of Young, and a feud had existed for some time between them in consequence. The quarrel culminated yesterday morning by Nash shooting Young dead in his own yard, and the flight of the murderer, who is supposed to have got aboard the up train for Nashville. Young was an old man. Nash was a middle aged man, and was formerly a conductor on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad. Both are said to have had families.

—The same paper says: An affray occurred on the Square at Shelbyville, on Monday evening, nearly resulting fatally to several of the parties engaged. Policeman William Black attempted to arrest a man named Bradshaw, who was believed to have been one of the company of Kuklux who entered the town on the night of the fourth, but while the arrest was being made, W. H. Wisener, Jr., son of Wm. H. Wisener, State Senator, stepped up and interfered as a friend of Bradshaw, and endeavored to stop the movement of the officer. A fight at once ensued, and young Wisener drawing a knife stabbed Black three times, twice in the arm and once in the back, inflicting serious, if not dangerous wounds. At the same time a Col. Galbroth, who had come up, drew a pistol on Bradshaw, and would have shot him dead had not Senator Wisener and Col. Scudder stepped between the muzzle and the supposed Kuklux.

—Capt. Davenport, Receiver on the Winchester and Alabama Railroad, has been appointed by Gov. Brownlow Receiver on the Manchester and McMinnville Railroad. The object of this appointment is to consolidate the two Receiverships, and curtail expenses.

—Tennessee wheat is rapidly moving out of the State in all directions. Day before yesterday the Louisville and Nashville Railroad took thirty-five car loads, destined for various points North, and yesterday the Edgefield and Kentucky Railroad took two car loads marked for Galveston, Texas. So says the Nashville Banner of the 9th.

—The Somerville Falcon of the 9th says: The County Court question has at last been settled and the three Commissioners appointed—Thos. R. Cocke, Robert Quinn and J. E. Cole—the first named being President of the Board, gave bond, qualified and organized the Court on Monday last, and are now proceeding with the business of the county.

—The same paper says of Bishop Quintard: This distinguished Prelate made his annual visit to this place on Thursday last, and preached in St. Thomas' Church on Thursday and Friday, morning and evening. We understand the rite of confirmation was by him administered to twenty-six persons.

THE CROPS.

—The Hernando Press of the 9th says: The farmers have harvested the wheat crop and the yield was very small to what was anticipated, the average being about six bushels. The oat crop is spoken of as being extra fine, and the yield will be heavy. The corn crop is somewhat cut short from the recent drouth, but if good rains can be had in a few days the turn-out will be very good. The cotton is looking well and growing, but needs as a general thing more rain.

—The same paper adds: Pleasant summer showers have fallen this last week, in different parts of the county, which have done a vast deal of good to corn and cotton.

—The Selma (Ala.) Times of Friday, says: The promise of rain yesterday was better than for two weeks past, but the day passed over with only a few drops to cheer our hearts. The country fire-fences is literally burning up. Gardens are past cure. The corn crop in this vicinity is out short fully one-third already, and cotton is beginning to suffer. We want rain.

—The New Orleans Times of the 9th, says: The advices from the interior in regard to cotton, corn and sugar are favorable. In some sections there are complaints in regard to drouth. It is hoped sufficient corn will be raised for local consumption. It would be a great result if Louisiana should raise sufficient corn for home consumption. This is not to be expected. From all accounts, there will be very little corn wanted in the Southwest this year from Northwestern granaries. However, send it forward; the greater supply and stock in our market, the more encouragement will be held forth for buyers and shippers for foreign account to visit our market. We should have in the regular business season, in our market, stocks of corn from 500,000 to 1,000,000 barrels, with good supplies of meats and provisions. Then our market could be depended on to meet orders for ship loads.

—The Monroe (La.) Intelligencer of a late date says: We have never experienced so long a drouth at this season, as now. Since the 16th of May, it has not rained in this neighborhood, and the prospects are not favorable for a change. But the crops are looking better than usual after such long continued dry weather. The cotton has not suffered, and looks well. Corn is not generally good, though plenty will be made for the quantity cultivated. Our gardens and orchards are suffering very much, and unless we have rain soon, we will be deprived of vegetables.

—The Vicksburg Herald of the 8th, says: The drouth has sadly injured the crops of corn in this vicinity. The cotton does not seem to have suffered as much, and is in consequence in a cleaner condition than we have seen since the war. Planters were for a while apprehensive that the worm would again blight their prospects, but with the exception of a few which came early in the season, we have heard nothing of their dread approach. Rain has visited different portions of the country recently, and seems to have imparted a little additional life to the drooping corn. More rain is needed.

—The Southern Standard, of Arkadelphia, Ark., says: The weather for the past few weeks has been remarkably dry and warm, the thermometer on one or two days running up as high as 99°. The crops are looking pretty well, but are suffering for the want of rain, and if it does not come soon the corn crop will be materially shortened, if not almost entirely cut off. Two or three good rains, however, at proper intervals would produce one of the finest corn crops ever raised in Clark county.

—The Somerville (Tenn.) Falcon of the 9th, says: On Monday last we had a shower of rain which served to lay the dust, and for the time cool the atmosphere, but was hardly sufficient to be of much benefit to corn, cotton and vegetables. In various sections of the county we learn an abundance of rain has fallen within the last few days, which has greatly improved the growing crops.

A FINE POEM.

We republish this poem from the APPEAL of the year 1866. When it was published, the author being then wholly unknown to us, we thought it the finest poem that had been written in connection with the great struggle of the South for independence. We think so yet, and therefore publish it again:

A PRAYER.

Lord God of Hosts! we lift our heart to Thee—
Our streaming eyes lift vainly toward Thy throne—
Earth's mists and shadows are so mighty grown,
The gleam of seraph wings we no more see.

Lord God of Hosts! we lift our heart to Thee—
Our hands are fettered down by galling chains;
No more the sceptre in our grasp remains—
Beneath the yoke we pass, with Liberty.

Lord God of Hosts! we lift our heart to Thee—
Our brows are bowed beneath Thy crown of thorn:
'Tis heavy with the blood of those we mourn;
It darkles with the life-blood of the free.

Lord God of Hosts! we lift our heart to Thee—
A ceaseless moan wails on its breeze of morn,
Through all the busy din of day borne,
And when the gloaming broodeth o'er the sea,

O God of Hosts! turn Thou and hear that moan,
No Southern lips are stranger to its sound,
And, shuddering, in the merry frolic's round,
Our prattling children catch its monotone.

Strong men weep now who never wept before—
Firm voices sorrow loud and passionate—
Black, stoled women yearning at thy fate—
Prayer-worn lips quiver, faded eyes brim o'er.

Thy fate—it is the only open door—
Where standeth Azrael, beckoning one by one—
By which we leave, our pilgrim goal being won,
This dreary God's Acre, crimson-drenched in gore.

Each lowly grave our mountains proudly mark—
Death seared the land throughout with fiery dart—
O, Thou who gavest tears to Lazarus dead,
Behold, our Mother-country lieth stark.

It is too late for us to raise or save—
We grappled with the bloodhound at her throat—
We saw his savage glare above her gloat—
Teach us to kneel, O God, beside her grave.

Teach us to kneel—to Thee alone, O God,
The tyrant fain would spurn us at his feet—
To gore upon our Mother's winding-sheet
Would brand us murderers, trickling through the sod.

Teach us to kneel—teach us to pray, O God—
Not for revenge—for vengeance is Thine own,
But that Thou hear our ceaseless prayerful moan,
And that Thou see we bow beneath Thy rod.

Lord God of Hosts! teach us to lift our hearts;
Let them not lower 'neath our fetters' weight:
Let not our war-worn heroes stoop to fate,
Nor barter Honor in the toe's fell marts.

The laurels in God's Acre shelter Thou—
Let still the people's patriotic tears
Wash from their shining crests the dust of years,
And dews from Heaven purify each bough.

O garner Thou the flowerets that rest
Beneath the sod until Thou bid them rise—
Receive them meet and stainless sacrifice,
And take them, gracious Father, to thy breast.

Break Thou, Lord God, our Captive's lengthening chain
Wherewith the foe hath him and Freedom bound—
From deep to deep its clanking doth resound:
Our hearts beat heavy to its sad refrain.

Hear Thou his prayer, to whom alone he prays.
In living mercy guard his widowed wife—
With honor hedge his orphaned children's life—
Untarnished keep Thou aye his hard-won bays.

Lord God! to Thee with him our heart we give;
O Thou who heardest Mary's stricken moan,
Roll from our Mother's grave the sealed stone:
Say to the Dead within—Come forth, and live!

If the personal friends and admirers of the great Tennessean will subscribe liberally at once, the work can be delivered by November, 1868.

THE CANDIDATES OF THE DEMOCRACY.

The Great Demonstration.

HORATIO SEYMOUR and FRANK P. BLAIR!—These are great names. We accept them heartily, as the Captains of the great Army of the Constitution.

SEYMOUR is a Statesman, worthy to sit in the place of Webster, Clay or Calhoun; a man of broad and comprehensive views; thoroughly educated, as well by experience as reading; a frank, manly, noble gentleman, who has passed through the fiery furnace of New York politics without a stain of dishonor on his name; a man who earnestly and in the utmost good faith endeavored to escape the nomination, and who will honor the office of President far more than the office will honour him.

FRANK P. BLAIR has become a familiar name to the people of the South, whose bloody and brutal tyrants he has denounced since the day when our Southern armies surrendered and the shame and ignominy of our Victors began. Before the war, he was a Republican, but one so genial and generous as to be always welcomed and greatly loved by the circle of gentlemen of a very different political faith, in which we had the honor occasionally to meet him in Washington. In selecting him to be one of its candidates, the Democratic Convention accepts and endorses his bold declaration that the Reconstruction legislation of Congress is unconstitutional and a nullity; and that the mission and duty of the Democratic party is to efface it, with all its consequences, that no trace or vestige of it or them may remain to curse and dishonor the country.

We are not much given to exaggerating that which gives us hope. We know that to exult beyond measure in the anticipation of success, is to make certain an unmanly depression and discouragement in case of defeat. It is said, and perhaps justly, that we are too much inclined to look upon the dark side of the picture; and that the sad and gloomy portraitures that we have sometimes drawn of the actual present and threatened future, have been calculated to discourage and dishearten, to chill the hopefulness of friends and paralyze their energies and zeal, and equally to encourage those who are the birds of prey, the hawks and the vultures, and the noisome vermin and poisonous reptiles, that feed upon or sting the Commonwealth.

At last, thank God, "the golden rose of Dawn," after the long, dark night of calamity and oppression, begins to glow in the east, for the vexed and persecuted South. The long, dark night!—for minutes of slavery are longer than years of Liberty, and crawl with painful retrogression into the hateful Past.

We are cold enough and calm enough, and enough inclined to despondency, not to be deluded by false hopes, or misled by a momentary enthusiasm. We should not pretend to be confident of success, if we were not so. To delude a people with false hopes is not profitable, even in the day when it is done, and it always bears evil fruit for the future.

Our dawn of hope is no delusive gleam, that gives false promise of the rising of a sun that may not rise at all. We believe that the candidates of Democratic Conservatism will be triumphantly elected. We believe that the eyes of the people of the Northern States are at last unsealed, and that they at last know Radicalism by its accursed fruits in South Carolina and Louisiana, by its corruptions and wasteful expenditure of the moneys wrung from the people by unconstitutional and exorbitant taxation, which the rich can avoid by investing their fortunes in bonds of the Government that are not taxable; but the poor must pay although it takes the bread from the mouths of their children.

We congratulate the Conservative white men of the city of Memphis, whether disfranchised, or allowed the poor privilege of equality with the negro, on the magnificent demonstration of Thursday night; on the zeal, enthusiasm and confidence that lit up the faces and inspired with hope and energy the souls of the assembled thousands, who, thronging together as in a huge amphitheatre, and acknowledging the magical influence of the fair faces that looked down upon them radiant with sympathy, heard, in the words of those who briefly addressed them, the utterance of their own thoughts and their own high hopes and generous resolutions.

We congratulate them on the perfect unison and harmony, not hereafter to be interrupted, that have succeeded a temporary misunderstanding. No one saw the enthusiasm, the order, the decorum of that great assemblage, without feeling that as the men who stood there have but a single object and a common purpose, so they will hereafter have but a single will.

How, indeed, can dissensions spring up? Who, of all the Conservatives of the city is so unworthy as to plot and plan for himself or for a miserable clique or faction? Who is there that did not on that great evening feel lifted up high above all such poor, pitiful, paltry considerations, and resolve to devote himself solely to the service of the country and the enfranchisement of the people? How can an Irishman, remembering Grattan, and Curran, and Emmett, and Wolfe Tone, and Fitzgerald, and Sheil, ally himself with that Despotism which scourges the South with whips of scorpions, forces negroes upon white men as their political equals, cheapens the elective franchise thereby, so that a vote is worth less than a dead rat or a rotten egg, dictates constitutions at the point of the bayonet, annuls in ten Irelands all the sacred guarantees of Magna Charta and the constitutions of the States, and maintains a brutal despotism over eight millions of people absolutely without rights, until it can substitute for this Government those of pitiful minorities of despicable white men, and uncivilized hordes of semi-barbarous negroes. The Irishman who can assist in this assassin's work would be unfit to co-operate in the task of winning independence for his own native land. Can the Teuton, of that great race that so long defied the power of Rome and maintained free institutions in the Germanian forests, be the ally or instrument of a sordid tyranny, like that which squats, in all its ugly deformity, upon the indignant heart of Tennessee, and stamps with its brutal hoofs upon the faces of ten prostrate States? Can he of whose race were Wallenstein and Frederic and Luther, Leibnitz, Goethe and Schiller, recognize without impatience and disgust the ignorant African as his political equal? Will the Italian consent to and tamely accept that degradation, remembering the great names of the Medici, Dante, Tasso, Alfieri and Michael Angelo, of the Dorias and Colonnas and Rienzi, the Tribune of the Roman people? Can he, and the Spaniard who remembers the old Gothic glories of his native land and the renown of the great Gonsalvo, and the Scotsman whose ancestors fought at Flodden-field, and to whom the names of the great men of his race are as household words, consent that the votes of negroes shall control the legislation that affects his rights, taxes his property, and concerns even his domestic relations?

Can the Frenchman to whom the great names of the Republic and the Empire are as heir-looms, be the ally of that faction which has made a jet black negro Lieutenant-Governor over those of his own race, and President of the Senate, and a mulatto Speaker of the House of Representatives of Louisiana? A Frenchman vote to continue over Frenchmen as chivalrous and honorable as himself, the rule and government of ignorant and recently emancipated negroes! It is not possible.

The cause of one is the cause of all. It is not alone the men of American birth who are ruled by military despotism in Mississippi, and over whom negroes are set as task-masters in South Carolina and Louisiana. It is not they alone who are disfranchised in Tennessee. The men of the Latin and Celtic and Teutonic races are equally oppressed, and the same persistent determination is manifested to crush out their pride and self-respect and humiliate and degrade them in their own eyes. Not the Christian only thus experiences the bitter consequences of subjugation, but the men of that people which received its laws from Moses, and defended the Holy City with such constancy against the legions of Titus,—of that race which the Radical candidate for the Presidency included in one broad and comprehensive denunciation, and which was oppressed and persecuted for centuries enough to make its sons ready to sympathize with any people in like manner oppressed, humiliated and outraged.

We congratulate the Conservatives of Memphis that in this great cause of the Constitution and the rights of man against oppression and force and fraud and the destruction of all the old landmarks of Constitutional Government, they are united together as one man, and that all former political differences are forgotten.

We already feel the benefits and are reaping the blessings of our discipline of adversity. We see how unnecessary was the bitterness of our former political controversies, how causeless were our former personal enmities, how unjust and ungenerous our opinions of political adversaries, how dangerous to the country are such party strifes. Those who once had not one charitable feeling for each other are now sincere friends, and the children of dead enemies clasp hands across their fathers' graves.

The people are wiser than they were, and are coming to love the simple truth better than gilded flattery or gaudy rhetoric. They will listen with most attention and respect to the man who speaks frankly and manfully to them the words of truth and soberness. It will be many years before the insincere and shallow demagogue will be acceptable again to the Southern people.

There is no cause for dissedsion among Conservatives. For the sake of the country, let us have none. Let the people at once quietly put aside every man who, assuming to lead or instruct, unconsciously reveals the fact that his own selfish interest is the motive for his action. It shall not be any longer said of us, as it was said after Julius Cæsar fell at the foot of the statue of Pompey in the capitol, that "Octavius had a party, and Antony had a party; but Rome had none."

The Conservative party is the party of the Commonwealth, of the Republic, of the country. It is honor and glory enough to serve in it in the ranks. Let those who assume to lead in it see to it that they be capable and fit and competent, or they may come to shame.

A FEUD has existed between two families—the Lees and Peacocks—who live near Pilot Grove, Texas. Some weeks ago they had a pitched battle, in which several on each side were killed. Another battle occurred on the 20th ultimo. The particulars are as follows: Old man Nance and his son, Peacock and Baldoc, and one more, were in the corral at old man Nance's house, catching horses, when they were attacked, it is said, by the Lee party. Young Nance, Baldoc and one other, whose name is not reported, were killed, and Peacock badly wounded.

GRANT PUT UPON THE STAND.

Gen. Rawlins, of Gen. Grant's staff, has lately published a lame attempt to explain and justify the order of the latter, issued during the war, and to which so just exception has been taken by the Hebrews whom it so unwarrantably denounced as a race. In reply to the attempt we find the following in the New York Herald:

QUESTIONS FOR GEN. GRANT'S CONSIDERATION.

To the Editor of the Herald:

Gen. Rawlins' letter in explanation of Gen. Grant's order No. 11 is dated Washington, May 6, 1868, and why it should be given to the public only six weeks after it was written is not proper for me to inquire; but considering that said order has been creating quite a controversy among newspapers, it might have appeared sooner. Without questioning the stability of the ground upon which Gen. Rawlins rests his defense, without arguing the probable results of such defense, I take the liberty of asking the General a few questions, which if properly answered will do a good deal towards satisfying the minds of the American people in general and of the Jews in especial in regard to this order.

First—Did Gen. Grant feel satisfied at the time when the order was issued that all the Jews crossing his lines or trading near or within their boundaries intended to violate his orders or give the enemy information in regard to his movements or plans?

Second—Did Gen. Grant know that Jews only were apt to commit such offenses?

Third—Was General Grant satisfied in his mind that among those of other religious denominations crossing his lines there were none who would or might violate any of his orders or reveal any of his plans to the enemy? Was he positive that no Methodists, Catholics, Baptists, Quakers, Mormons or anybody else belonging to one of the thirty and odd different religious sects (Jews excepted) which live peacefully in this free country would act contrary to his orders?

If General Rawlins should be able to answer these questions satisfactorily, then the Jews may, perhaps, be willing to admit that General Grant's order No. 11 was justifiable.

A TRUE REPUBLICAN.

NEW YORK, June 24.

The Radical journals virtuously remonstrate against any combination and organization among the Hebrews for the purpose of uniting their vote against Gen. Grant, and pretend that it is to enlist religious prejudices in a political controversy. This is cool, coming from a faction which preaches the politics of Radicalism from its pulpits, and has always made use of religious prejudices and fanaticism to effect its sinister purposes. It is not, on the part of the indignant Hebrews, a matter of religion. It is but the expression of a just indignation against the slanderer of the race of which the Maccabees once were chiefs, of the race to which he whom the Christians deem the Saviour of the world, himself belonged. When the votes of foreign-born citizens and Catholics are sought to be obtained against a candidate who was once a Know-Nothing, no one is bold enough to pretend to a virtuous indignation at the impropriety of such an appeal. Our Hebrew citizens, we imagine, very well know what course their own self-respect makes it fit for them to take.

ARKANSAS.

—The Fort Smith Herald of the 4th says: The business of the Circuit Court, now in session here, is progressing slowly, many of the criminal cases pending having been continued by the defendants.

—The same paper says: On Tuesday we had a very fine rain. The crops were suffering for it, and it is to be hoped that the rain was extensive. A few more rains will give the farmers fine crops of corn.

—J. H. Sparks, Esq., formerly of the Pine Bluff Dispatch, has assumed editorial control of the Fort Smith Herald.

—A shooting affray occurred at Camden, a few days ago, between Dr. B. F. West and a Mr. Ludlow Clark. Dr. W. was shot in the finger. No further damage done.

—We learn from the Camden Herald and Eagle, that C. Thrower, Esq., has retired from that paper, and that he purposes, at an early day, starting a new paper at that place, to be under his sole management.

—Mr. Edward Santer fell dead upon the street in Little Rock a few days ago. Cause, sunstroke.

—The Gazette of the 7th says: The Governor of all the Arkansians having sharpened the knife, inaugurated the work of decapitation on Monday by cutting off the official heads of our worthy J. Ps. Three heads rolled from the block at one fell swoop. Two scalawags and one buck nigger take their places. "Justice, thou art fled to brutish beasts, and men have lost their reason."

Tobacco Fairs.

The annual tobacco fairs at St. Louis and Louisville, on the 8th, were well attended. At the former place the entries were numerous and the competition spirited. The quality of tobacco displayed was, however, inferior to former years.

The first premium for the best hogshead of manufacturing leaf was awarded to James Whiteside, Ballard county, Ky.; second premium to Benjamin Griffith, Graves county, Ky.; third premium to James Buchanan, Ballard county, Ky.

First premium for best hogshead of cutting leaf to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati; second premium to Thomas Rhodus & Co., St. Louis.

First premium for best hogshead of black wrapper to Samuel Edwards; second premium to same.

First premium for best prize hogshead to W. D. Usher, Ballard county, Ky.; second premium to Cole Brothers, St. Louis.

Best ten hogsheads of shipping leaf offered by one party, Lewis, Nanson & Co., St. Louis, for Miller, Cochran & Morgan, Keytsville, Mo.

Best hogshead of manufacturing leaf, raised by a lady, award to Mrs. James Hazlewood, McCracken county, Ky.

After the awards the premium tobacco was sold as follows: Best hogshead of manufacturing leaf, $100 per 100 pounds; second best, $78; third best, $76. Best hogshead of cutting leaf, $50; second best, $39. Best hogshead of black wrapper, $30; second best, $25.

The lady's prize hogshead sold for one hundred and ten dollars.

At Louisville the fair was largely attended by buyers from all parts of the country. There were three hundred and ninety-five hogsheads entered for the various premiums.

The first premium, for Kentucky bright wrapper, was awarded to R. R. Wakefield, of Ballard county, which was bought for $275 per 100 pounds.

The first premium for cutting leaf was awarded to Villie Black, of Mason county, and bought for $65.

The premium for the best five hogsheads cutting leaf was awarded to Villie Black, of Mason. One hogshead was bought for $40; one for $35; three for $31, $32 and $35.

The first premium for black wrapper to B. K. Gould, of Christian county.

The first premium for shipping leaf to W. S. Reilling, of Warren county.

The premium for best ten hogsheads of leaf to W. M. Wilson & Co., of Barren county.

The first premium for prime bright wrapper, Virginia or any other State, to Mrs. Mary Cook, of Hart county; second to S. P. Halsey & Co., of Lynchburg, Va. The Hart county tobacco brought $95 50; the Virginia sold for $95.

Night Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 10.—The Irish reform bill has passed the House of Lords.

The authorities of Southampton invited Farragut to a grand complimentary dinner, which he declined.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, July 10.—The Banner has a special from Knoxville, stating that Col. H. M. Ashby, late of C. S. A., was shot and instantly killed, at 6 p.m. to day, by E. C. Camp.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Dispatches from nearly every section of Missouri say the nominations of Seymour and Blair were received with great satisfaction, particularly that of Blair. Ratification meetings were held last night. Salutes were fired and all the various joyful manifestations indulged in.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 10.—Kellogg, who is elected Senator for the long term, is from Illinois; and Harris, who is elected for the short term, is last from Wisconsin.

The Senate yesterday passed the House joint resolution ratifying the fourteenth amendment, and immediately afterwards passed, finally, the metropolitan police bill, and this morning the papers announced the names of the Police Commissioners, who it seems were appointed beforehand.

Four of the supposed filibusters arrested at Fort Livingston last week have been released on bond to answer to the charges in the future. The remainder were discharged by Commissioner Waller.

An Austin, Texas, special says the division of the State has been indefinitely postponed.

The subject of the cession of El Paso to the United States has been set for Saturday.

Varnell introduced a resolution requiring a residence of five years to be a Legislator, and seven to become a member of Congress.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A mass meeting was held last evening in Union Square, under the auspices of the New York Democratic Club, to ratify the nominations of the National Democratic Convention. Speeches were made by Gen. Wade Hampton, Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, and several others.

The Herald says the Democratic party has decided that the next President shall be Grant, and that Seymour against Grant amounts to a Democratic surrender or a disbanding of the Democratic party.

The Times says the Democratic ticket will not bring out even a full vote, and will disgust the non-partizan element, and nothing but a series of miracles can save the party from defeat.

The Tribune, after recounting the former political course of Seymour, says: "If this man can be chosen President over Grant, then the political blood shed in the war was in vain."

The World says Mr. Seymour is the first statesman in the Democratic party, and possesses every personal qualification and accomplishments which befit the Chief Magistrate of a great nation. He has a strong grasp on the questions relating to the resuscitation of the shattered prosperity of the country, and his election will establish confidence, both at home and abroad, in the financial honor of the country, and in other respects also. It considers that Seymour will make a far stronger President than Chase.

The Sun says Seymour is an eminent exponent of the Democratic party, but does not think that Blair will add to the success of the ticket.

Henry Ward Beecher is out in a card denying that he favors Chase, and concludes by comparing Grant to Washington.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The chair submitted a letter of resignation from Senator Johnson.

Edmunds' bill to exclude from the Electoral College the States recently in rebellion was called up. During the discussion Edmunds denounced the National Democratic platform as a fraud.

Davis pronounced Grant no soldier, and asserted that but for an accident and but for an abler man than himself, we would never have heard of him as a Presidential candidate.

HOUSE.

Garfield reported the bill to reduce the army to a peace establishment. The first section, continuing the office of General of the army, gave rise to a discussion.

Wilson, of Iowa, moved to strike it out. Rejected.

Logan moved to amend by providing that the duties of that office shall, in case of a vacancy, devolve upon the officer next in rank. Agreed to.

Johnson moved the office be discontinued. Rejected.

The second section, which refers to the Lieutenant-General, was amended by Logan similarly to the first section. The third section, which provides that there shall be no brevet appointment of General or Lieutenant-General, was amended by striking out the words General or Lieutenant-General. Subsequently the words "except for meritorious service in the presence of the enemy" were added.

House Committee on ways and Means reported a joint resolution to extend to the 1st of January 1869, the time for the collection of direct tax in the South. Passed.

Boies presented a memorial of the Arkansas Constitutional Convention, asking aid to build levees along the Arkansas and Mississippi rivers in Arkansas. Referred to the Freedmen's Committee.

The bill distributing rewards for the capture of Jefferson Davis was passed.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported a bill discontinuing the percentage for the sale of United States securities, and that authority to issue United States bonds shall cease immediately, except for the conversion of Treasury notes into seven-twenties. Recommitted.

The bill continuing the Freedmen's Bureau became a law to-day, without the President's signature.

Radical Lies.

We see in the Jackson (Miss.) Pilot, the official organ for the mongrel convention, several assertions which we pass by with silence and contempt. But we find the Memphis Bulletin and Post both echo nearly all the Pilot's assertions, and lest our silence might be construed into an acknowledgment of the truth of these unblushing charges, we deem it our duty to our people to pronounce them wholly false.

They charge the Democratic party of Mississippi with fraud, threat, intimidation and violence, etc. Now, we can prove that the threats came from the Radicals to the negroes, and that there was not the slightest intimation of violence on the part of the Democracy. We can prove (by colored men) that Wiseman, whose report both the Pilot and Bulletin base their assertions on, threatened the negroes who dared to vote the Democratic ticket with mobbing at the hands of his negro satellites. We can prove that negroes who wished to vote the Democratic ticket were afraid to do so in presence of some of their colored brethren, and consequently did not vote for either party. But we feel we are giving too much space to this subject, and therefore close by saying we speak the truth. Your falsehoods will avail you nothing. The time has long passed when people thought you uttered the truth.—Hernando Press.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE APPEAL.

Subscribers are requested to report to the Superintendent of Circulation, at our Counting-room, No. 13 Jefferson street, any irregularities or failures on the part of our carriers in delivering their papers promptly and regularly. Any complaint will be immediately attended to.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents who wish to have any attention paid to their communications must observe the following rules:

Be brief, concise and to the point, avoid the "flowers of rhetoric," and confine yourself to a plain statement of facts. Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

CREDITORS' NOTICE.—We call the attention of those interested to the notice of Augustus Alston, Esq., to the creditors of the Commercial Bank of Tennessee. It will be found among our new advertisements.

TO EXCURSIONISTS.—The steamer Peosta gives notice in another column that she makes several daily trips to Mound City. No pleasanter trip can be devised, and those having an hour or two to spare during the "cool of the day," cannot do better than to make a trip on her.

YOUNG MENS' DEMOCRATIC CLUB. The young men of Memphis who have not attached themselves to any organized club, are earnestly requested to meet at the engine-house, corner of Second and Adams streets, on Monday night at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a Young Mens' Democratic Association.

THOS. B. DAVENPORT,

VARIETIES THEATER.—Mrs. C. H. Broom, the popular manageress of this temple of mirth and fun, takes a benefit to-night. We are sure that the fact needs only to be known to insure her a full and enthusiastic house. Every one who goes there is indebted to the Madame for a good part of the pleasure enjoyed, and we hope that she may receive some substantial token of the regard of her friends and admirers to-night.

MR. MCLEFRESH, whose name was introduced in our ventilation of the Beaumont-Waldran embroglio yesterday, called upon us yesterday afternoon, and desired us to say that he does not and never has fraternized with the Radical party. We make this statement with the more pleasure as our article would leave the impression on the reader that he was one of the genus scalawag—which all who know him know is not the case.

CONSERVATIVE NEGRO.—We had the pleasure of listening, yesterday evening, before 'Squire Black's office, to an argument between Harris, a Conservative negro, and a white Radical named Welch. Harris gave his scalawag opponent a pretty severe raking over the coals, much to the edification of all who heard it. We are glad to know that there are some of the colored people among us who have not allowed themselves to be led away completely into scalawag bondage.

—Sam P. Rose, Esq., editor of the Tipton County Record, is in the city, and paid us a visit yesterday.

—D. J. Chidester, Esq., the father of Arkansas stage travel—the original Arkansas traveler—passed through the city yesterday en route for Washington.

—Our friend Stearns, of the house of Messrs. Church & Co., the enterprising and popular booksellers, left yesterday for New York. He will be absent a month or six weeks.

THE DEMOCRACY.

Rally of the Young Men.

The Independent Young Men's Democratic Association.

There was quite a rally of the most respectable young men of our city last night, at the Irving block, to organize an independent Democratic club.

The meeting was called to order by Major Irving Halsey, who was made temporary chairman.

A motion was made for the chair to appoint a committee of three on organization, which was seconded and carried. Accordingly the chair appointed Messrs. J. A. J. Smith, James P. Gallagher and D. C. Irwin, as the committee.

On motion, the chair also appointed a committee of five, as follows, to draft a Constitution and By-Laws: R. M. McKie, George Mellersh, George Gillham, C. W. Gullck and H. C. Warner.

A motion was then made that the meeting resolve itself into a permanent club and elect officers, which was done, and the following named gentlemen chosen to serve:

Gen. Rucker, President; Irving Halsey, first Vice-President; Geo. Mellersh, second Vice-President; H. M. Lowenstein, third Vice-President; R. H. Sylvester, Corresponding Secretary; R. M. McKie, Recording Secretary; C. S. Loope, Treasurer.

After the election, a motion was made that all who desired to become members of the Club should enroll their names; which was done, some forty names being enrolled.

There being no further business before the meeting, it adjourned.

Due notice will be given in the papers of the next regular meeting.

SUICIDE.

A Strange and Sad Affair.

A Well-known Mechanic becomes Tired of Life and takes Laudanum.

We were informed yesterday of a strange and sad suicide, which took place on the corner of Tennessee and South streets, day before yesterday. The felo de se was a young man, named Bowman, well-known in the city, and but lately married to a young and lovely woman. We have been able to glean only a few circumstances connected with the tragedy, which we present below:

Bowman went home on Thursday evening, apparently in good health and spirits, and found that his wife, to whom he had been married but five months, had gone visiting. He went to his room and laid himself down on the bed, and in the course of half an hour or so called to a servant woman, who was ironing in the kitchen, to come to him. She replied that she could not come right away, and waited some minutes before she went to him. On entering the room she was struck by the smell of laudanum, and saw an ounce phial lying on the floor empty. He said to her as she entered, "You have come too late; I have poisoned myself." She immediately ran to the nearest drug store on South street, (we were unable to learn the name of the druggist) and called the druggist in to see Mr. Bowman. As soon as the medical gentleman arrived, he saw that without a stomach pump the case was hopeless, and not having one himself, he sent to the druggist on the corner of Main and Beal streets, who came forthwith with the required instrument. The stomach was immediately emptied of its contents—but too late—the insidious poison had done its work, and in a few hours the unfortunate man breathed his last. During the period that his mind was lucid, the only reason that he gave for the act was that he was "tired of life."

Mr. Bowman formerly kept the Harvey House, on Mulberry street, and was a carpenter of no mean skill. He was apparently in flourishing circumstances, and no possible reason can be surmised for the rash act.

POLICE ITEMS.

—There were six arrests up to eight o'clock in the Second District; six cases were tried and ten dollars in fines taken up.

—There were fourteen arrests in the First District up to midnight; $20 assessed in fines, but only $15 collected.

—Capt. Simons, of the First District, arrested Moses Byrnes, a notorious horse-thief, on Thursday night. He was turned over to the State yesterday morning.

—W. A. Hall had Mary J. Smith arrested and brought before 'Squire Griffith last evening, on the charge of petit larceny. The prisoner, after a hearing, was discharged.

—Richard Gordon complained before Justice Griffith that Mr. Matt. Duffy had "sthruck" him, and hoi him with a stick. The 'Squire caused the bellicose Duffy to be arrested, and fined him $2 50 and costs.

—The case against Mrs. Degan, for perjury, was dismissed by 'Squire Griffith yesterday—not a shadow of evidence having been brought up to justify the charge. The case was first carried before 'Squire Kiernan, but afterwards moved before 'Squire Griffith, who, on sifting it, found it to be a purely malicious charge, trumped up to ruin Mrs. Degan's character.

—Susan Harris had Harry Stickels arrested and carried before 'Squire Black, charged with obtaining possession of a pistol surreptitiously, with wicked and malicious intent, to the prejudice of the peace and quiet of the State of Tennessee. The case will be tried to-day.

—Wash Peebles a molasses colored individual, who claims to be a "sporting man," day before yesterday took a green country darkey "in," and bamboozled him out of twenty dollars. The circumstances of the "take in," as brought out before the Commissioner yesterday morning, show Wash to be a sharp rascal, and one that it would be well for the public to have incarcerated for awhile. Wash, it appears, met his victim, the green old darkey, hunting for a ticket office to buy a ticket to leave the city. He asked Wash where such an institution was to be found, and the obliging cuss took him to the foot of Moyer & Dederick's stairs, on Court street. Leaving him for a moment he went up stairs, and shortly made his appearance with a card in his hand, which he told the unsuspecting darkey was a pass to the point whither he wished to go, and that it cost $17. The old darkey not having the exact change, gave him a $20 bill and he disappeared—ostensibly to get change—leaving his 'wictim' waiting for him. An hour or so passed on and he did not return, and the old fellow began to be alarmed and went up stairs, where he was told that his ticket was not worth a cent and he had been humbugged. He immediately got out a warrant for Wash, the bamboozler, and had him arrested. 'Squire Richards examined the case and made Wash refund the money he had so rascally obtained possession of, and fined him fifty dollars. Wash, under advisement of a scalawag, took an appeal.

THE GREAT RALLY.

The editorial rooms of the APPEAL were occupied night before last until a very late hour (midnight) by a throng of fair visitors, who effectually precluded any chance of "writing up" the grand and imposing demonstration of the Democracy. We did intend to give our readers a detailed account of the affair, but it has been done so well by our neighbors of the Avalanche and the Ledger as to preclude any necessity for the same from our hands, and we will confine ourselves to a few little incidents that were not touched upon by our confreres.

Imprimis—We are assured by those well used to see and compute bodies of men, that our estimate of the number on the streets was far below the mark—nearer ten thousand than five; and on making a calculation, we are inclined to believe that the higher estimate is correct. The streets and alleys concentering near the offices of the Avalanche and APPEAL were densely packed with human beings, from Front to Main, and nearly from Adams to Court. Never before have we seen so dense a crowd in Memphis. It reminded us very much of a Washington City crowd, from its surging, heaving nature. The good order which prevailed throughout the whole affair was marvellous, not a single fight or disturbance having taken place during the entire evening.

The Worsham House was the only hotel in the city that made an attempt at illumination. It presented a really brilliant display, having been litten up from basement to garret. Unfortunately, although the crowd expected an address, and it was generally understood that John Bullock, Esq., would speak there, there was no address made at that point.

There seems to have been considerable confusion, generally, in the matter of providing speakers at different places. If we are not mistaken, Messrs. Yerger and McRea were both billeted to speak at the Bethel Block, but somehow they spoke from the Avalanche building.

The pyrotechnic display in various parts of the city was very fine, the air being ablaze for a couple of hours with rockets, Roman candles, and various other improvised feu de joie. The APPEAL office excelled all the balance in the amount and quality of its pyrotechny—the grand fusilade of rockets at the close of Gen. Pike's speech having been noted as especially fine. A party of ladies and gentlemen who were on the sandbar on the opposite side of the river, describe the scene, when the crowd reached the APPEAL rooms, as magnificent in the extreme, the glare of bonfires and the meteorlike blaze of rockets lighting up the whole outline of the city, causing it and the dark frowning bluffs to be reflected in the glassy surface of the river with a marvellous beauty and fidelity.

The crowd, which before it reached the APPEAL was very noisy, while Gen. Pike was speaking, maintained a silence almost perfect, broken only by the enthusiastic cheering which rolled forth almost spontaneously at the eloquent and happy hits made by the distinguished orator.

By the way, the statement made by the evening Radical sheet in regard to the General's speech, so far as it makes him say that Tennessee might or would be carried by the Radicals in the coming struggle, is simply a lie of the first water, and the author of the paragraph knew he was lying when he wrote it.

Strange to say, that amid so much flying-fire there was not a single serious accident. One large "pound" rocket was set off accidentally in Center alley, and whizzed its way down the alley, doing no damage, however. The roof of the APPEAL editorial rooms caught fire, and had quite a hole burned in it before it was discovered, but a bucketful of water and a sponge soon put it out.

On the whole, the affair was a most magnificent success, improvised as it was. Had it been postponed for twenty-four hours, however, it would have been far more splendid—every house in Memphis would have been illumined and five times the number of persons would have been on the streets.

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor—In chambers, Chancellor Smith heard the arguments of counsel in the case of the State ex rel. A. P. Burditt vs. George W. Waldran. A large number of members of the bar were present, the case being one of some novelty and exciting much interest in legal circles. Chancellor Smith took the papers and reserved his decision to a future day, probably Monday next, Court meets on next Monday for the purpose of closing up the business of the term.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. Meets to-day at the usual hour. Motions will be heard. No other business will be transacted.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran Judge.—The case of the State vs. R. Van Brocklin has been specially set for trial to-day.

The cases against Messrs. Burdett and Beaumont were originally set for trial to-day, but owing to agreement of counsel in the cause pending in the Chancery Court these cases will not be set for trial until the chancery cause shall be decided by the Chancellor.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—The argument of counsel in the case of the State vs. Henderson Ford, Bedford, Moody, Jones, commenced last evening. Col. Gantt opened for the State. The argument was continued up to a late hour last night. Col. Bullock and Mr. Van A. W. Anderson assist Col. Gantt in the prosecution. Messrs. Orville Yerger and Robinson conduct the defense. A verdict will probably be rendered to-day.

TO THE ISRAELITES.

"To Your Tents, Oh Israel!"

We recommend to the careful perusal of every Israelite in our midst the following call, signed by one of the first of the faith in our city—an "Israelite indeed, in whom there is no guile." Let them rally, and form, as their brethren throughout the North and West have done, and show themselves earnest in the fight which we have entered into against tyranny and oppression, political, religious and social, embodied in Grant, the Radical candidate for the Presidency:

Now that the National Democratic Convention have nominated the dauntless champions of justice and liberty, Seymour and Blair, for President and Vice President of the United States, it behooves each and every good citizen to go zealously to work and help to further the noble cause for which we are all contending—freedom of speech, equality of rights, and that great paramount ruling principle for which our forefathers fought and bled—liberty. While we must admit that the good people of Shelby county have not been idle, but have been and are still earnestly laboring to promote the welfare of our cause, we are nevertheless prone to say that our co-religionists (the Jews) have not evinced that interest that they should in the great conflict, while in other cities Jewish Clubs have been organized pledging their support to the nominees of the Democratic Convention, and further, to use all their influence to defeat the Profligate Proscriber Grant, the Radical nominee for President—while they, we say, have been going on with the noble work, our Memphis brethren have done nought. Israelites of Memphis, shall we fold our arms in perfect indifference, and look quietly on? we who have been slandered and abused as no people ever were, and that, too, by the very man who heads the Radical ticket for President? Never, gentlemen; we must be wide awake; we must form clubs, and that right away. Delays are dangerous. Our honor demands that we take such steps as will show to the world that we, as a people, ever stand by the right, and uphold the great principles of liberty and justice. Let us, therefore, form a club and endeavor, by our exertions, to assist those who are working so assiduously in the same cause to wrest from the ruthless grasp of infidel hands the tree of independence, planted amid enduring toils, the roots of which were watered by the blood that flowed in the veins of our renowned ancestry which crimsoned the plains of a thousand battle-fields, and under whose sheltering foliage oppression should never find a resting place. The highest encomiums of praise, now as well as in the future, will panegyrise the lofty patriotism of those persons who zealously rush to the standard of their betrayed and downtrodden country at her trumpet call.

To your tents, then, O Israel! Buckle on your armor and forward to battle! The toosin has sounded! Rally, form your clubs, sound the trumpets and let the hills awaken with your loud huzzas for liberty, justice and equality. It is a fight on our side against oppression and wrong. We must triumph; victory must alight upon our banner, for

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers;
But error, wounded, dies in pain,
And dies amid her worshippers.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Low water packets are preparing for an active campaign upon all the upper rivers.

The Gleaner lays up for the present, and meditates a trip to the Ohio in a very few days.

The Minneola is on her way to this port.

The Lizzie Gill, on her way up to St. Louis, struck a bluff bank at Point Pleasant, causing her to ship water and damage her freight.

Another Radical has been elected Wharfmaster at St. Louis. His name is Auguste Vogel, and he may keep out of prison a month or two if he has luck.

The body of the Memphian, who fell overboard from the Indiana, at Cairo, has been recovered.

Our friend Dinwiddie came up yesterday morning on the Dexter.

The Belle St. Louis, Capt. Zeigler, with Ad. Storm in the office, leaves at 6 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She is one of the finest packets of the line, and Ad. Storm is a host in himself.

The Peosta is again on the track, and resumes her regular trips to Mound City, under Capt. Mark R. Cheek, who is well known to picknickers and fishermen, as well as those traveling regularly between Memphis and Mound City.

The Ozark leaves for the Arkansas on Monday positively. She will be in port to-day.

The Julia, Capt. Lockhart, will pass down to-day for Vicksburg and the bends. Mr. Isaacs is her chief clerk, and is a popular and efficient officer.

The Pargoud passed down yesterday.

The fine U. S. mail packet Liberty, Capt. Rice, with Harry and Sharpe in the office, backs out this evening for all points on White river. She makes all landings, and connects with the Little Rock train at Devall's Bluffs.

The local inspectors have suspended the license of pilot John N. Littrell for thirty days for violation of rule No. 8 for the government of pilots, causing the collision between the steamers Falls City and Norman at the foot of the Louisville and Portland canal, July 7th, 1868.

Capt. Reese Pritchard is rusticating at Crab Orchard, Ky. The Celeste, it is said, will enter the Louisville and Cairo trade during low water.

On the last trip of the Marble City from this city to St. Louis, a passenger who got on the boat at Hale's Point was killed by a relative, named Brady.

The wreck of the Amelia Poe is being watched by a large number of Indians—upwards of two hundred lodges—who intend to rifle it as soon as the water gets low enough. A party of wood choppers are there, who claim to have bought the wreck and its contents for $200. They took out the cabin furniture, and some canned fruits and other provisions from the hold. The Indians attacked them, took the property away, broke up the furniture and ate the provisions. The choppers and the Indians are both on the watch now, and will have a fight over the plunder as soon as the river gets low enough so that either can get at it. The Indians are Assinneboines.

It is reported that the towboat I. L. Hyatt is sunk at Island No. 1.

The Judge Fletcher leaves Louisville for New Orleans on Saturday next.

We learn from Capt. Stut Neal that the Richmond was not injured by her efforts to emulate the trick mule by jumping bars on the Ohio. She is at present receiving some necessary overhauling at Cairo, preparatory to entering the Memphis and New Orleans trade.

The people of Three Forks, Texas, seem to be in earnest in regard to navigating the Trinity. Two boats are being built at that place, intended for the fall trade. The timbers of one are nearly ready to be placed in position to frame a boat 80 feet long, 20 feet wide, capable of carrying 250 bales of cotton, and with steam power sufficient to run her ten miles an hour. Four boats will ply between Galveston and Dallas this winter, if the freights will justify.

One merchant has no right to obtain information through the Customhouse detrimental to another merchant's interest. For instance, a merchant may load a vessel with merchandise for a certain port, which he desires to be concealed or private. He fears by publication of his exports other parties may send similar cargoes, and the intended market be overstocked. In case of this kind, which occur very often, all that is required for shippers under contingencies of this character, is to request the Customhouse officials not to expose the manifest.

The United States dredging boat Essayons is not making very rapid progress toward the mouth of the Mississippi river. It put into Hampton Roads on the 24th ult., to repair machinery, which was carried out, or supposed to have been, and started on its course. We, however, learn that it put back again on the 1st inst., with machinery disabled. We hope in a week or more, or less time, to hear of its arrival at Southwest Pass.

The Fort Smith Herald of a late date says: The river rose about eighteen inches last week, but has fallen again to almost low water mark. The American went back from Frog bayou.

The Little Rock Gazette of the 7th says: We report twenty-four inches water to Pine Bluff and fifteen inches to Fort Smith. The steamer Fort Smith was successfully launched from the docks on Saturday, and will be ready to sail in a few days.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly

And whereas, In order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F. Hopkins did execute his deed of Trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises and property in county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and consisting of about ten acres, which was conveyed in fee simple by James W. MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY PPEAL, MEMPHIS, July 10, 1868.

"All the world and the rest of mankind" were out last night, and the expressions of gratification which went up from lips long silent politically, we hope augurs a more cheerful state of affairs all over the South. There is certainly a stronger feeling in reference to Southern securities than existed even a day or two ago, and the demand for them from the East proves that the far-seeing capitalists of that section at least have confidence in the future of the country. Memphis city bonds are especially in favor. A letter from President Davis, of the First National Bank, who is now in New York, speaks in very flattering terms of these bonds, and thinks that they are worth more there than in this market. A lot of $10,000 was sold to-day at 57c deliverable on the 25th inst. An offer of 58c was made for another $10,000. The party had but $2000 which he let go at that figure. A large number of the bonds are ready for the Mayor's signature and will be paid out when that gentleman returns. As they will not be put upon the market, but held as an investment, prices will remain firm and possibly advance rapidly. In other bonds and stocks there is nothing doing owing to the light offerings. We quote Miss. Central, 1st mortgage bonds, 58c; 2d do, 40c; Miss. and Tenn., 1st mortgage, 50c. There is no Memphis and Charleston stock upon the market; 85c was offered for their bonds, but refused. Memphis and Louisville 1st mortgage 10s we quote nominally at 31c; 2d mortgage 6s, 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds are dull and nominal, an offer of 40c, however, for their bonds was rejected.

Gold advances steadily. It opened today in New York at 140¾c and closed at 140¾c. A small business only is being done in coin in this market. We quote buying at 138 to 139c. Selling at 140 to 141c as to amount.

The following are the New York quotations on Governments: Coupons, '81, 13⅜; do '62, 13½; do '65, 11½; do new issue, 8⅜; do '67, 8⅝; 10-40s, 7⅜; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 8⅜; Old Tennessees, 70; new do 69½.

City Scrip is quiet. Buying at 75c. Selling at 78 to 80c.

County Warrants are daily declining. To-day the market was heavy at 55c buying. Selling at 60c.

Police Scrip weak. Buying 75c. Selling at 80c.

From Messrs. Partee & Harbert, of No 14 Monroe street, we have received a well-formed and very healthy looking cotton boll—the first we have seen this season. It was taken from the plantation of B. F. Harbert, Esq., below Sunflower landing, Coahoma county, Miss.

Cotton was quiet in Liverpool at the opening to-day. Uplands, 11¼ to 11¼d. Orleans, 11½ to 11⅝d. At noon the market was dull, closing quiet and steady, with quotations unchanged. Sales 10,000. Week's sales 71,000, of which 10,000 were taken for export, and 9000 by speculators. Stock 582,000 of which 341,000 is American. Stock afloat 112,000 bales. Of this amount 25,000 is American.

The New York market was dull. Middlings, 32½c early in the day, and closed quiet and weak. Middlings, 32¼ to 32½c. Other grades unchanged.

There were no sales in this market. A lot of 40 bales Low Middlings for which 29c was refused, is held at 30c.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of Deed in Trust made to me on the 18th day of June, 1867, by John W. Rutland, and recorded in the Register's office of DeSoto county, State of Mississippi, in Book No. 2, pages 401, 402 and 403, I will sell, at public auction, in front of the Courthouse door, in the town of Hernando and State of Mississippi, to the highest bidder, for cash,

On the 8th Day of August Next,

THE NATIONAL

COMPANY.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

$10,000,000,

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The stockholders of this company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other company. The act of Congress under which this company has been organized, prohibits any transfer of the franchises granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE.

One per cent. of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the ENTIRE CAPITAL STOCK shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent. of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 MILES OF WIRE,

Which will connect all the commercial cents and important places in the United States This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

The National Telegraph Company is organized under the Laws of the State of New York and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.
